Summary of Project Results

Recommendations

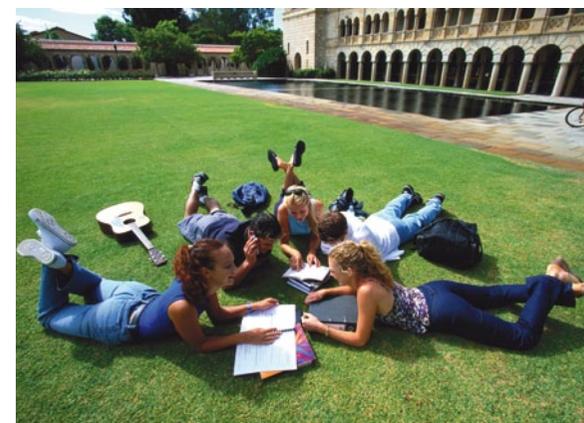

Within the “MODE: Mobility for Democracy” project seven partners participated and contributed in the whole implementation phase.

Knowledge gained during the project:

- mutual interaction and cooperation in equal partnership,
- exchange of experience and methods between European NGOs,
- establishment of future contacts among the partners and other local organizations,
- continuous communication with volunteers through online tools.

The most important of all was the positive feedback that all partners received from the participants at the end of each event. They welcomed the friendly atmosphere, the excellent organization and the context of the themes. Additionally, during the 2 weeks exchange mobility the volunteers had the opportunity to “work” and understand the methodology of European NGOs as well as exchange opinions and ideas and develop a deeper understanding of cultural and linguistic diversity.

For all the above reasons and more, we would strongly recommend to other organizations to contribute to similar events, as it will be an opportunity to establish new contacts with other European NGOs, exchange experiences and resources and encourage volunteering and active citizenship.

The project partners invite organizations interested in learning more about the project, international volunteering or working methods of non-governmental organizations to contact them.
