

Extraordinary opportunity to build active citizenship in Europe!

Deadline to apply: 12th October 2018

ALDA - the European Association for Local Democracy - continuously supports activities in the field of active European citizenship. In this perspective, we have decided to open a call for proposals for activities and events, which will take place from 22nd October to 31st December 2018. ALDA will be supporting the organization and implementation of the selected activities.

The applications should be committed to the advancement of ALDA's main goal, which is promoting good governance and citizen participation at the local level in Europe. Eligible activities must promote the active involvement of citizens on the most current issues on the EU agenda and contribute to an ever-integrated European Union.

Priority of the actions:

- ❑ to contribute to citizens' understanding of the Union, its history and diversity, pushing people to debate and act jointly about the Future of the European Union, in order to allow them to determine their own path and future
- ❑ to promote solidarity, also through promoting informative and raising-awareness activities and debates on 4 priorities: counter radicalism, employment, migration, inequalities;
- ❑ to raise awareness about the upcoming EU Elections in 2019, pushing people to have a clear understanding on how EU will develop over the years, and how they can contribute.
- ❑ to push people to actively contribute to their integration process, with a clear focus on the enlargement process of the South-Eastern Europe Region.
- ❑ to foster European citizenship and to promote civic participation at European and local level, and to support and empower civil society, in order to make them be a stronger voice in front of decision makers, activating civic initiatives, citizen participation and volunteering;
- ❑ to support decentralization and development of capacities and awareness of local and regional authorities;
- ❑ to foster cooperation between local authorities and civil society and multilevel governance;
- ❑ to protect and involve different target groups, focusing on underrepresented groups such as minorities, migrants, asylum seekers and third-nationals – promoting thus social inclusion and integration through civic participation;

Eligibility criteria:

- ❑ The applicants are local authorities or civil society organizations;
- ❑ The events can be conferences or debates, seminars, training course, campaigns and other visibility elements;
- ❑ The events must take place in Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, United Kingdom, Albania, Bosnia & Herzegovina, former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Montenegro, Serbia, Kosovo*. The list is exclusive and no other countries are considered eligible. The eligibility criteria are related to the applicant's country;
- ❑ The event should preferably address partnerships between civil society and local authorities;
- ❑ The applicants, should the proposal be granted, will apply for ALDA's membership no later than January 2019. For more information on the membership status, please refer to this link: http://www.ald-europe.eu/newSite/members_bec.php

Support criteria:

ALDA will support the implementation of the selected action by partnering with the applicant. Financial support will also be provided as below:

- ❑ When ALDA supports the event with 1000 Euros, the applicant will present a minimum of 3000 Euros as co-funding (Total 4000 Euros per event)
- ❑ When ALDA supports the event with 2000 Euros, the applicant will present minimum 5000 Euros as co-funding (Total 7000 Euros per event)
- ❑ When ALDA supports the event with 3000 Euros, the applicant will present minimum 10.000 Euros as co-funding (Total 13.000 Euros per event)
- ❑ The amounts above are indicative and different amounts might be requested.

IMPORTANT: Please be noted that co-funding by the applicant cannot originate from EU funds and projects

Selection criteria:

- ❑ Consistency with the objectives of the programme – the proposed activities and expected outcomes should contribute to the achievement of the objectives of the programme;
- ❑ Quality of the action plan of the application – priority is given to projects which gather different types of organisations (local authorities, NGOs, research institutes, etc.) or developing different types of activities (research, non-formal education, public debates, exhibitions, etc.) or involving citizens coming from different target groups;
- ❑ Dissemination – priority will be given to applications providing a coherent dissemination plan able to give visibility to Europe for Citizens' and ALDA's logo via the use of different communication channels;
- ❑ Impact – priority will be given to actions partnering with and/or involving several organizations/local authorities and able to involve citizens from underrepresented groups or with less opportunities.
- ❑ Financial capacity – priority is given to applications presenting higher level of cofunding;
