Promoting good governance and citizens participation at the local level in Europe and beyond since 1999

Introduction

ALDA - the European Association for Local Democracy is an organisation dedicated to the promotion of good governance and citizens participation at the local level. ALDA in particular focuses on activities that facilitate cooperation between local authorities and civil society. Everyday, we develop projects with our members to support their activities for the good of the whole community.

ALDA was established in 1999 at the initiative of the Council of Europe's Congress of Local and Regional Authorities and has now established cooperation with the European Commission and the Committee of the Regions.

ALDA is funded through membership fees and project funding from the European Commission, the Council of Europe and other public and private donors.

ALDA is a membership-based organisation gathering 300 members coming from almost 40 countries. ALDA members include local and regional authorities, associations of local authorities, non-governmental organisations, civil society organisations and academic institutions.

Besides members, ALDA Community counts 6 offices¹⁵ Local Democracy Agencies in Neighbouring Countries. Activities of ALDA, following the ambitious aim of "going global", now cover countries in sub-saharan Africa and Central Asia.

What we do

ALDA conducts its activities through actions:

- Developing and managing its own projects (and members' projects) in the field of good governance and citizen participation advocating towards the implementation of the Agenda 2030 at the local level;
- Coordinating and supporting the 15 Local Democracy Agencies and 2 Operational Partners;
- Cooperating as official partners of the Council of Europe and the Congress of Local and Regional Authorities. Working as long-term partner of the Europe for Citizens Programme and Citizens, Equality, Rights and Values Programme and other key policies and programmes of the European Commission;
- Leading advocacy and lobbying activities raising the voice of its members and partners to orient local, national and European policies in our field of activities to make a stronger and more cohesive Europe and neighbourhood.

ALDA works through a participatory approach and the method of multilateral decentralised cooperation, always focusing on strong partnerships between Local Authorities and civil society organisations.

Thematic Hubs

Following its fast growth in recent years, ALDA has become more and more active in many areas. Thematic Hubs ensure a holistic approach in the governance of the Association and make the involvement of members more systematic. Discover the Thematic Hubs of ALDA and join the activities!

Citizens Engagement

The Hub wants to strengthen citizens' participation by providing deep knowledge on the topic and experience-based learning and tools.

Digital & Innovation

The Hub supports a digital transition able to guarantee a democratic, inclusive and informed citizen participation.

Gender, Inclusion & Human Rights

The Hub employs an Intersectional Approach to address the compounding experiences of discrimination arising from overlapping social identities.

Migration

The Hub analyses how migration is evolving and how to implement effective policies and responses to address this multifaceted issue at multiple levels.

Youth Empowerment & Education

The Hub promotes active engagement of young people and education opportunities focusing on disadvantaged youth.

Environment & Climate

The Hub supports a green transition at the service of the fight against climate change and environmental degradation.

Territorial & Local Development

The Hub empowers citizens through decentralised decision-making, fostering social cohesion and ensuring equitable opportunities for local development.

Only members of ALDA access the services of the Thematic Hubs and enjoy targeted engagement in the fields of the Hubs.

OUR MEMBERS SAY ABOUT US

"The collaboration with ALDA on the FACE project represented a great opportunity for us, in terms of intellectual outputs, professional growth, exchange with other countries and associations."

Gabriela Diaz and Anna Mascheroni, Cittadini Digitali (Italy)

"ALDA taught and provided us with tools to support our local democracy, promote active citizenship, stimulate societal and intercultural engagement; and all this in a participatory way. We want to show our citizens, and let them experience, that they are part of Europe and that our role as local government doesn't stop at the borders of our town, region or country."

Erik Fuhlbrugge, Zoersel Municipality (Belgium)

"Civil society organisations like ALDA play a critical role in fostering active citizenship and creating a sense of togetherness in Europe. with ALDA ever since the 2019 European elections campaign has been a real pleasure. Together, we brainstorm ideas, share materials and support each other's campaigns to communicate about Europe better to citizens and encourage their democratic participation at EU-level"

Shevani Murray, Civil Society Outreach Unit, DG COMM, European Parliament

BEING A MEMBER OF ALDA

Being a member of ALDA means first of all sharing our mission: the promotion of good governance and citizen participation at the local level. Our network of members embrace our founding values: decentralisation, a strong and independent civil society, respect of human rights, tolerance, and solidarity, standing against speeches of hatred and intolerance, cross-border cooperation and free movement.

ALDA is also committed to promote gender equality and avoid all forms of discrimination. In order to do so, ALDA is implementing a comprehensive Gender Equality and Anti-Discrimination Policy whose guidelines members of ALDA are invited to share.

HOW TO APPLY FOR ALDA MEMBERSHIP

APPLICATION FORM

ALDA application form filled out

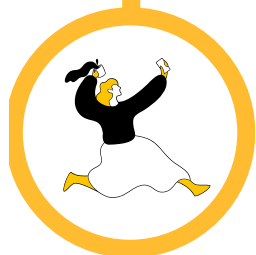

COPY OF BUDGET

A copy of the last approved budget

PRESENTATION

A short presentation of the applicant, its activities and motivation for becoming a member of ALDA

EXPERTISE

A short description of the applicant's experiences in participative democracy and citizens engagement at the local level with best practices and programmes

The documents are to be sent to membership@alda-europe.eu

Memberships are approved on a continuous basis, usually every two months, by ALDA's Governing Board. The candidates will be requested to present their application in an online meeting after which the Board will decide the membership status. The applicant is considered a full member of ALDA once the applicant receives the formal approval from ALDA's Governing Board. The member will then access the services of ALDA and will be able to vote at the General Assembly. The new member will receive the instructions for payment of the fees. The membership fee is calculated on the basis of your Association/Organisation/Municipality's last approved budget, to assure all our members a fairer fee allocation and enabling smaller organisations to join ALDA and enrich our network.

The grid with the amount of the annual fee is attached to the application form.
