

URGENT! CALL FOR EVS VOLUNTEER – PROJECT VOICE

Cooperativa Primavera 85, member of ALDA, is urgently looking for a volunteer for the EVS project VOICE - VOLunteers Initiative for Combating Exclusion, approved by the Italian Youth National Agency and running from the 1st September 2016 until the 31st August 2017.

The volunteering mobility period runs from 1st October 2016 until 30th June 2017 and takes place in Sovizzo (VI), Italy.

The volunteer shall be resident in one ERASMUS + Programme country (page 22 of the ERASMUS + programme guide) except Italy.

The volunteer shall refer to an EVS accredited sending organisation in his/her country of residence (i.e. in France, the volunteer can refer to ALDA).

The volunteer shall be aged between 18 and 30 and s/he would be allocated to the center for autism. The volunteer does not necessarily have previous experience with disability, but s/he needs to be motivated, willing to observe and keep a low profile, to await instructions and to perform what is asked when it is asked. Autism often manifests with behavioral problems, therefore the required characteristics are especially advocated. Despite this, we are warmly welcoming people that can bring fresh energies and new ideas that can positively contaminate the on-going projects.

The volunteer will join a team of three other volunteers from Serbia, Macedonia and Germany; he/she should preferably have a discrete knowledge of English to communicate with his/her peers.

In order to guarantee perfect gender balance in the group, we especially invite girls to apply.

Travel costs, accommodation & board will be covered. Pocket money will be provided. An course of Italian will also be provided.

The volunteer will be subject to the rules and conditions foreseen by the EVS programme and namely by the volunteer agreement.

More information about the hosting organisation, the project and any logistical information are available here.
