

CALL FOR THE 2104 EDITION

Rules for participation in the seventh edition of CORTI AND CIGARETTES :

The competition is divided into two sections:

- International Short Film
- Experimental Short Films

And three competitive selections :

- Med Short
- Web Series Short
- Music Short

International Shorts:

Short films do not necessarily have to be unpublished . The shorts must have a maximum duration of twenty (20) minutes .

The films must have a narrative character and the theme is free.

Experimental short films :

Short films do not necessarily have to be unpublished . The shorts must have a maximum duration of fifteen (15) minutes. Short films must not necessarily have a narrative character and must pay highest attention to specific expressive, conceptual and formal techniques used . All the techniques of audio-visual production are allowed

Med Short:

The exhibition aims through film to support intercultural and interreligious dialogue, to deepen relations between the States bordering on the Mediterranean, creating insights into possible common policies. It 's the ideal place for short films that highlight the value and importance of economic relations , past and future policies between the European Union and the countries of the Euro -Mediterranean area, in addition to raising awareness of the territories , the places, the problems of the countries bordering the Mediterranean. The films must not necessarily be unpublished. The theme is free .

Maximum duration of 20 minutes.

Web Series Short :

the selection , unique in its kind in Italy, is dedicated to Web Series online . They need not be unpublished . Will be shown the first episode that shall not exceed the duration of 20 minutes. The theme is free .

Music Short:

Selection reserved for unpublished or published in 2014 VIDEOCLIPS, national or international, of a maximum duration of 8 minutes.

Note: Films or documentaries made anywhere in the world by individuals, associations or companies will be acceptable.

Each participant can send a maximum of :

- two works for an individual;
- three works in the case of an association or a company (but no director may exceed the limit of three) .

To participate, works must be created in digital or film and transcribed in digital form .

Works recorded on DVD must be sent with the following annexes:

- Release of reproduction rights signed by the copyright holder
- Filled Application and author form, available on the site www.cortiaandcigarettes.com
- Curriculum vitae of the author;
- Synopsis of the short film;
- Any still photos in digital format .

The films must be received by mail or delivered by courier to:

TOMMASO RANCHINO

Via Cristoforo Colombo 177

00147 - Rome (Italy)

no later than June 30, 2014 , as postmarked. In any case the shipping fees (sending and withdrawal of the material) shall be the sole responsibility of participants. The envelope must specify the section in which the work is submitted.

The work will be subject to a pre-selection in all Sections . The films selected will participate in the final event to be held in the autumn of 2014 in Rome and will be screened publicly (dates of the event to be announced later). The work that will arrive without the above requirements or illegible will not be taken into consideration.

The materials collected will become part of the cultural heritage of the Meltin'Pot Association within a multimedia archive .

The Association shall not have the right to use the works for any event or events unrelated to the Festival, except with the explicit consent of the copyright holders .

The Association accepts no responsibility for any damage to the works during the trip and transport. Each section will have its own jury , composed of experts in the field of cinema, which will be announced prior to the event . These juries will identify and make public the following awards:

International Shorts:

- best Short Film
- best Story
- best performer

Experimental shorts:

- best Short Film
- Technical Horizons award

Music Shorts, Med Shorts, Web Series Shorts:

- Best music video, best Mediterranean short , best web series
- Audience Award

For all information on the competition please contact the Festival Office at:

cortiandcigarettes@gmail.com

Participation in the competition implies acceptance of the present rules in all their points.
Participation in the final event to be held in autumn 2014 in Rome shall at the expense of the author.

The Association shall govern cases not provided for in this call with specific rules.

Festival Internazionale del Cortometraggio Corti and Cigarettes
Via C.E. Gadda 165 – 00143 Rome (ITALY)
e-mail: cortiandcigarettes@gmail.com