The new edition of Corti and Cigarettes 2014 kicks off: the 7th edition of the Capital's film festival that offers the Italian public a selection of the best short films of the international stage.

For this edition also, side by side with the competitive sections International Shorts (editor Tommasos Ranchino) and Experimental Shorts (editor Valentino Catricalà) , the directors of Corti and Cigarettes propose Web Series (for fans of web -series) , Music Shorts (the section under the watchful eye of Alessandro Guida, reserved for videoclips still unreleased or published in 2014) and Medshort (the series coordinated by Alessandro Zoppo that collects, selects and disseminates the short films from all countries of the Mediterranean basin) .

The other new features are : Dance your movie (the international competition led by dancer and choreographer Francesco De Simone and dedicated to young dancers, who will create a choreography to the music of films) and Naturally Together, the focus section directed by Guido Orlandini and dedicated to the success stories of immigration.

The panel of Corti and Cigarettes intercepts - explain the promoters Nicola Liguori, Tommaso Ranchino and Annamaria Liguori - all the public, and all those productions , which in recent years have fueled a real film production hub on the web. The aim is to channel within the festival all the production that now invades the new media market and that often dictates new rules and new standards, also accepted by the mainstream TV and film industries.

We can therefore expect an event which, this year more than ever, will be able to propose to the Italian public an offering of short films that will leave no spaces and artistic productions untouched, aiming to promote the emerging young, research, experimentation and the promotion of culture as a meeting place.

A full panel therefore for Corti and Cigarettes which – having been awarded the Gold Medal of the President of the Republic and reached its seventh edition - aims to maintain its commitment to research , dissemination and promotion of the best short films in circulation, and confirm itself as a place of exchange between film-lovers from all over the world to reflect on new ideas and possible cooperation.

THE DEADLINE TO PARTICIPATE IN CORTI AND CIGARETTES is June 30, 2014
